

CELL NOTES
for Dave Day's talk on 24 May 2009

Constants in a time of Change

Hebrews 12:1-2,26-29

The Unshakeable Kingdom and the Unshakeable Friend

We cope with change because we have fixed our sights on the destination

- The reason for change
- The inconvenience of change
- The choices of change
- The cost of change
- Our attitude in change (14-15)
- Looking for the hand of God in his dealings with us
- Being grateful when we see the bigger picture
- The rewards of change

CELL QUESTIONS

1. What does fixing our eyes on Jesus mean for us as a church at the moment?
2. What do we think is shakeable and unshakeable in our own lives, our cell life and in the life of BCF
3. How can we maintain a good clear attitude in times of change?
4. What do we find difficult with change and what do we find exciting about change?
5. What do you think 'our God is a consuming fire' means?