

CELL NOTES For Dave Day's talk on 12 October 2008 GIVING: A KINGDOM PRINCIPLE

Rom 12 1-2

Finance is an area where we are squeezed into this world's mould more than any other.

To tithe or not to tithe?

Is it a requirement? Is it legalism? Is the alternative to tithing giving all?

Where do we stand on debt?

Generational attitudes to money

How do students take steps of faith?

How far do we go with credit cards?

Do we need Personal Budget Coaches?

What is the difference between a hilarious giver and an irresponsible giver?

(2 Cor 9:7)

How can we learn to be content in whatever circumstances we find ourselves?

(Phil 4:12)

What does living by faith mean?

A personal story

CELL SUGGESTIONS

Take the questions raised in the notes and discuss:

1. Should we tithe? What are our reasons for tithing or not tithing?
2. What is our attitude to debt? What does the Bible say about it? What about mortgages and credit cards? How should students approach student loans?
3. What measures the amount we give?
4. Should we all live by faith?
5. What personal stories of God's provision or answers to steps of faith are there in the cell?
